EXECUTIVE PROFILE

PhinaDon Touching Lives Foundation

The PhinaDon Touching Lives Foundation is a new charity organization in Nigeria founded by philanthropist and actress PhinaDon. The foundation aims to address critical challenges faced by vulnerable members of society, such as poverty, hunger, lack of education, and limited access to healthcare. Their focus is on education - the less privileged – among Widow and Orphan believed it to be the basis for unlocking the potential of individuals and communities.

The foundation plans to collaborate with other organizations to provide vocational training and job opportunities. They also recognize the importance of good health and aim to provide healthcare services to those who cannot afford them.

The foundation has made remarkable progress since its inception, providing practical assistance through food programs, housing solutions, healthcare treatments and training, and skill development programs. They work closely with community partners and prioritize transparency, accountability, and sustainability.

Looking ahead, the foundation has ambitious goals, particularly in education and healthcare. They aim to provide underprivileged children with the skills and knowledge needed to succeed in life and work towards creating a sustainable healthcare system for all. The foundation's white paper states its objectives, achievements, and future goals, emphasizing its commitment to transparency and accountability.

The article highlights the personal commitment of PhinaDon and her belief in the importance of helping others. It also addresses the social issues faced by Nigeria and Denmark, emphasizing the need for humanitarian services and the role of organizations like PhinaDon Touching Lives Foundation. The foundation's programs and services focus on providing food assistance, housing solutions, healthcare treatments, and skill training to empower individuals and communities. The initiatives positively impact local communities, promoting self-sufficiency, well-being, and economic growth.

Partnerships and collaborations are vital for the foundation's work, allowing them to leverage resources, expertise and build trust with the communities they serve. They value collaboration with local communities, government organizations, non-profits, and other partners.

To ensure the sustainability of our programs and maximize our impact, we actively seek funding from various sources, including individual donors, corporate sponsorships, grants, and partnerships with other organizations. We believe in the power of philanthropy and the collective effort to create lasting change, and we work diligently to secure the necessary resources to support our mission.

In monetary management, we maintain strict internal controls and adhere to the best financial practice of transparency and accountability. We undergo regular independent audits to ensure the responsible and effective use of funds. We are committed to transparency and reporting, providing regular updates to our stakeholders, and sharing the impact of our programs and initiatives.

In addition to financial sustainability, we prioritize the sustainability of our programs and initiatives. We strive to create positive solutions in the short term and long-term benefits for the communities we serve. We work closely with our partners and local communities to develop programs that are contextually appropriate and responsive to their needs. We also emphasize capacity building and knowledge transfer to ensure that the impact of our programs extends beyond our direct involvement.

At PTLF, we recognize that sustainability is a journey, and we are committed to continuously improving our practices and seeking innovative solutions to create lasting impact. We are grateful for the support of our donors, partners, and stakeholders, who play a vital role in ensuring our organization and mission sustainability.

In conclusion, the PhinaDon Touching Lives Foundation remains dedicated to changing the lives of the less privileged by providing practical assistance and essential resources. Through our various programs and initiatives, we strive to address the critical challenges faced by vulnerable members of society, including poverty, hunger, lack of education, and access to healthcare. Our focus on education and health, with our commitment to collaboration and partnership, allows us to create sustainable solutions that promote empowerment and well-being.

We are encouraged by our core values of compassion, collaboration, integrity, and inclusion to guide us in our mission to create a brighter future for all. We recognize the importance of local communities and partnerships in achieving our goals and actively seek opportunities to work together for a positive impact.

We continue this journey as we remain committed to transparency, accountability, and sustainability. We are grateful for the support of our donors, partners, and stakeholders, and we invite others to join us in our cause.
